

Grandsire Doubles: plain course

In a plain course the 2nd bell plain hunts

Grandsire: touches

Bob is called at treble's handstroke blow in 3rds place. It takes effect the following handstroke

What comes next?

If making 3rds:
unaffected

Next time:
dodge 4/5 down

If about to dodge 4/5 up: make early 3rds and go into the hunt

Next time:
in the hunt.

If in the hunt:
double dodge 4/5 down

Next time:
dodge 4/5 up

If about to dodge 4/5 down:
double dodge 4/5 up

Next time:
make 3rds

If about to make 3rds:
make 2nds and go into the hunt

Next time:
in the hunt

If about to dodge 4/5 up:
make long 3rds (4 blows in 3rds place)

Next time:
dodge 4/5 down

If in the hunt:
double dodge 4/5 down

Next time:
dodge 4/5 up

If about to dodge 4/5 down:
double dodge 4/5 up

Next time:
make 3rds

Easy touches of Grandsire to practise pieces of work

Out and into the hunt.

The learner can ring the 2 to practise this short touch.

Half hunt (or observation) bell

The learner can ring the 3 to practise double dodging 4/5 up.

Call 3 bobs on alternate lead ends starting on the first. This comes round after 60 changes.