

PLAIN HUNT QUIZ

- 1) If you are leading is your bell ringing
  - a) second?.....
  - b) first?.....
  - c) last?.....
- 2) If you are ringing in a 6 bell tower and you are covering to plain hunt on 5 bells, are you ringing
  - a) the treble?.....
  - b) the tenor?.....
  - c) the 5th bell?.....
- 3) When you ring two blows at the back in plain hunt are you said to be
  - a) lying?.....
  - b) hunting?.....
  - c) resting?.....
- 4) When you are plain hunting how many speeds must you make your bell ring at
  - a) 2?.....
  - b) 1?.....
  - c) 3?.....
- 5) When plain hunting and moving from 2nds place to 3rds place are you
  - a) hunting up?.....
  - b) hunting down?.....
- 6) When plain hunting and moving from 4ths place to 3rds place are you said to be
  - a) going in?.....
  - b) going out?.....
- 7) If you are hunting from the lead up to 5ths place are you
  - a) running in?.....
  - b) running out?.....
- 8) Plain hunt on 5 bells is called
  - a) plain hunt Minimus?.....
  - b) plain hunt Doubles?.....
  - c) plain hunt Minor?.....

- 9) Plain hunt on 6 bells is called
- a) plain hunt Major?.....
  - b) plain hunt Maximus?.....
  - c) plain hunt Minor?.....
- 10) If you are ringing two blows at the back in plain hunt Doubles, are you ringing
- a) handstroke/backstroke?.....
  - b) backstroke/handstroke?.....
- 11) If you are ringing two blows at the back in plain hunt Minor are you ringing
- a) handstroke/backstroke?.....
  - b) backstroke/handstroke?.....
- 12) When leading we ring with an "open handstroke". Does this mean
- a) we must ring very close to the tenor's backstroke?.....
  - b) we must leave a little gap between the tenor's backstroke and our handstroke?.....
  - c) we must leave a little gap between the tenor's handstroke and our handstroke?.....
- 13) When you leave the lead and move up into seconds place, the bell you ring after is known as
- a) your working bell?.....
  - b) your partner?.....
  - c) your after bell?.....
- 14) In plain hunt when is the next time you ring over this bell
- a) before you lead next time?.....
  - b) your first blow at the back?.....
  - c) your second blow at the back?.....
- 15) When you are hunting down, you ring over a bell in seconds place at backstroke just before you lead. Is this bell
- a) your after bell?.....
  - b) your course bell?.....
  - c) your friend?.....

- 16) In plain hunt when is the next time you will ring over this bell again
- a) after you lead?.....
  - b) on your first blow at the back?.....
  - c) on your second blow at the back?.....
- 17) If another ringer says to you "I'll take you off the lead", does this mean
- a) you must lead at your next blow at handstroke?.....
  - b) you must ring after him in seconds place at the next handstroke after leading?.....
  - c) you must lead next backstroke?.....
- 18) If a ringer says to you "You are coursing me" or "Course me down", when do you ring over his bell?
- a) in two blows time?.....
  - b) in thirds place going in?.....
  - c) in seconds place at backstroke before going into the lead at handstroke?.....
- 19) When ringing plain hunt you must start to learn
- a) your course bell?.....
  - b) your after bell?.....
  - c) the number of the bell to ring over next?.....
  - d) to count your place?.....
- 20) Why is learning to count your place so important?
- a) so you don't get bored?.....
  - b) to help with your numeracy skills?.....
  - c) because all method ringing is based on counting your place and until you can learn to do this you will not be able to move on to learning Bob Doubles and other methods?.....

Name. _____

Tower _____